

Optimal Text Generation Sample by bGPT

Leonard Patrick Garcia (born October 29, 1964) is an American politician and member of the Nevada House of Representatives. He represents the 66th District, a portion of Chattanooga, Nevada, and is a member of the Republican Party. He is a member of the District 18.

Early life and education

Garcia was born in Paradise, Nevada, the son of Joseph and Sarah (Beth) Garcia. His father was a lawyer, and he graduated from Michigan State University with a bachelor's degree in political science.

Career

Garcia was elected to the Nevada House of Representatives as a Republican in 2008, succeeding James McGinnis who did not run for re-election to the State Senate. Garcia is currently the secretary of the Nevada House Development Committee.

References

External links

Official biography at the Nevada General Assembly

1964 births

Living people

Members of the Nevada House of Representatives

Nevada Republicans

Politicians from Paradise, Nevada

Michigan State University alumni

21st-century American politicians